FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Mary C. Mulrean, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and a subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4), to serve as a music trainer, translator and arranger. The director denied the petition determining that the petitioner had failed to establish the beneficiary's two years of continuous religious work experience. The Associate Commissioner affirmed the decision of the director on appeal. The Associate Commissioner also found that the petitioner had failed to establish that it is a qualifying, tax-exempt religious organization, that the beneficiary was a member of the petitioner's denomination for at least the two-year period prior to filing, or that the prospective occupation is a religious occupation.

On motion, counsel stated that the Associate Commissioner "is incorrect as a matter of law." Counsel indicated that he would submit additional evidence by November 30, 1999. As of this date, almost one year later, no additional information has been submitted by counsel.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be provided at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) states that a motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. That burden has not been met, as the petitioner has not provided any new facts or additional evidence to overcome the previous decision of the Associate Commissioner. Accordingly, the previous decisions of the director and the Associate Commissioner will not be disturbed, and the motion will be dismissed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
